Fortunately by Colleen Kessler

Fortunately: I was up early to start my day and make it to co-op on time.

Unfortunately: I forgot to set the coffee maker on auto so there was no coffee.

Fortunately: I had enough time to make my coffee.

Unfortunately: It will take up some of the time I have left to pack our lunches.

Fortunately: I went grocery shopping yesterday so I have plenty of options.

Unfortunately: I am terrible at making decisions when it comes to lunches-on-the-go and still have to shower.

Fortunately: I can shower quickly.

Unfortunately: The hot water took extra long to heat up.

Fortunately: After taking my shower and getting dressed I still had an extra ten minutes.

Unfortunately: I still hadn't had my coffee.

Fortunately: One of my kids had put my coffee in a travel mug for me.

Unfortunately: I couldn't find my car keys.

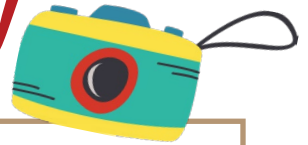

Fortunately: My son found the spare set.

Unfortunately: There was terrible traffic.

Fortunately: I took a different route and made it to co-op just in time!
